ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!
AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS

[illegible] attention of all having relations [illegible] to the fact that HOOFLAND'S [illegible] cure nine tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists published almost daily in the newspapers on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

[illegible] particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters."

PHILADELPHIA, August 23 186–

Messrs Jones & Evans —Well gentlemen your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery and under the immediate command of Captain R B Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down it was immediately thrown up again.

[illegible] even keep a glass of water on my stomach. [illegible] last under these circumstances and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital Mr Frederick Steinbrun, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months, for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dear to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE

[illegible] concur in the truth of the above statement as [illegible] despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr Malone restored to health.

Our Golden Resources

In any present attempt to form an estimate of the products of our gold mines during the season just drawing to a close it should be remembered that in a comparatively new and actually undeveloped region, obstacles in the way of precision are presented in just as many diverse shapes as the ingenuity of man, when guided by what he deems private policy—but which is, for the public prosperity absolutely impolitic—can erect. The miner, traveling through a region of country but sparsely populated—if at all—where he considers the law inadequate to his protection in the event of his treasure proving too strong a temptation for unprincipled men, cultivates a secretiveness which prompts him often times to solicit food in charity as a travel worn and 'dead broke'' miner at the very moment when he is ready to sink under the weight of gold dust which his ragged habiliments conceal. With vague apprehensions of unseen dangers and concealed foes—not so much to himself as to his possessions—he leaves the mine, wending his way homeward or to his destination with all the seeming disconsolateness upon an exhibition of which he considers his safety depends. To obtain a knowledge of the amount of gold which this class of men—and it comprehends a large number—carry away, would baffle the shrowdest attempts of human genius. We do not say that such men are unwise. Another, and a moderate sized class, are ever ready upon their arrival in the towns, to exhibit or acknowledge the possession of a fair amount of dust, but are generally certain to keep concealed the bulk of their wealth. Thus a very large proportion of all the gold delved from our soil ebbs away with the current of each autumnal exodus, and its identity becomes lost to our State in the great ocean of foreign wealth. It is in point conceded by all who are qualified to judge, that not one eighth of the treasure leaving our borders pays any freight, expressage or insurance. The same rule applies to the miner, the drover, the packer, and to no very limited extent to the merchant, who, doing business in the city with branch stores through the mines, repairs to California for the replenishment of his stock in trade, running all risks as his own insurance and express agent, thus saving a per centage by conveying his own treasure, and a commission by effecting his own purchases. That the mineral wealth of Oregon and contiguous territories on the North and East, is equal to that of a like area in any other part of the globe, has already been demonstrated to the satisfaction of numerous practical, experienced miners, who have sought to gain information by the only means through which it could be successfully obtained viz personal experiment. The number of miners engaged in opening up the country, when contrasted with the early years of California and Australia, is comparatively smaller than the mining population of either of the above instanced localities, while the yield has been comparatively larger, and our prospects are undimmed by the lustre of either. To be sure we have enjoyed, to a slight extent, the advantage of an experience acquired in the developing years of other auriferous regions, but, for many obvious reasons, our miners have been compelled to operate with crude and inefficient utensils, unable, from the nature of the surrounding country, to adapt to their requirements the appliances invented and improved upon where facilities for manufacture or transportation were superior by reason of the passage of time. Many of our disabilities are being rapidly removed, and there is no doubt that our mining operations of next summer will be conducted with a success inferior to no others in the world.

We will not now undertake to name a sum to represent the full amount of treasure harvested in the mines above, thus far this year. The reasons set forth in the foregoing remarks, based upon an experience extending back to the "palmy days of '49," are to be sufficient for not indulging in such speculations. When we are in a situation, under the patronage of Government, to offer to the miner a depository for his gold, and throw around him in our city so many home attractions as are necessary to retain him in our midst during his time of recreation, we may be able to specify an amount of "dust received" that will give our State the name and rank to which she is entitled, and to which she will speedily attain. Through the politeness of the members of the firms below named, we are able to give a correct idea of the amount of gold which has been placed in their hands. The shipments of treasure to San Francisco by Wells, Fargo & Co, during the past few months, is as follows:—

June 1st	$286 000

Matters at Boise

BANNOCK CITY Oct 2[illegible], 1863

Editor Oregonian—

Conflicting reports are still in circulation regarding the mines on Snake river alluded to in my last letter. For two or three weeks past [illegible] that was [illegible] hundred [illegible] on foot, on horseback, in ox carts and on any kind [illegible] they could pick up. In fact the excitement has been so intense that some of our very best and most temperate men were suddenly taken with 'snakes in their boots,' after which nobody knew anything about.

But, as everything has its run in the way of wild excitements, so may it be said of Snake river. At present and for ten days past an under current has been pouring into Bannock and [illegible] growing [illegible] expeditions up to the head of [illegible] for having steamboat [illegible] there on Snake river. Yet, at the same time I am unable to put it down as a humbug.

You all know there was conflicting stories about this basin, at the outset, as well as almost every other camp struck in the upper country and it may be so with Snake. I will not pass judgment on the question but will simply state that I believe next year will prove it to be a good mining country. A piece of quartz rock is now in San Francisco brought from the Blackfoot fork of Snake river by your correspondent who, at the time was too ignorant on the subject to know what it was only that it was a 'pretty stone,' the worth of which he never known until he saw a similar piece in the show window of Goldsmith, on Front street in your city.

Now, that the tide is setting back from this new discovery, we are looking forward to the next that is expected to operate on the brain of those in our community known as 'Horse.' For three days past the Malheur has been all acting some from Granite creek and Placerville. It is said they have struck it big this time on the Malheur. I most earnestly hope they have, for, if it were possible I don't very much if a more enterprising, energetic or enduring people can be found on the globe than they have been during the present season. While we of the town have been quietly at work on our claims, taking out the riches of mother Earth 'they' have been climbing over almost insurmountable obstacles, of all the various kinds, mountains of precipitous height, fording streams, and traveling amidst all the dangers of an unexplored country, often cold, hungry and tired with little or nothing to eat in search of some new field where the industry of the human race could find a chance to exert itself. And yet, after all 'they' get very little credit for what they do. Who 'they' are generally is not known even in the best camps that have been discovered. We work quietly, thoughtlessly in our general avocations, careless of whom it is we are indebted to for braving the dangers incident to the opening of a gold country, and the hardy prospector receives but a small recompense for his trouble. He holds his claim subject to the same laws in common with the rest and is very little better known than the rawest stranger—even though he just come in from a civilized country.

But 'they' who prospected and discovered Boise basin mean to perpetuate their names, and a few evenings ago a splendid party was given at the Magnolia in this city, by the Pioneers, calling it the 'First Annual Ball of the Pioneers, known as Moore's party.' The ball was all that could be desired. The music was good, and the company was about as gay as you Portland folks could turn out. I attended. At the start I had fears that trouble might brew out of it—as you must know we have a 'mixed population' here, and then again on several occasions before trouble had grown out of parties given in Bannock and pistols were brought into requisition—but happily, we had a good time and the evening passed off to the infinite satisfaction of all, especially the local reporters, who had a chance to spread themselves on 'eyes looked love,' 'wee sma' hours,' the 'fairy scene of transitory joys' and all that kind of sentiment to their heart's content.

But as you would approach one of these "Pioneers" that evening, and begin conversation on the subject of their search prospecting and incidents connected, there was one incident that was not so pleasant although thrilling. I allude to the time when Mr Grimes was killed. That was indeed a trial hour for the little party known now as the Pioneers. When they were obliged to bury him in one of their prospect holes and flee for safety. Then their return was one of still more thrilling adventure, when they constructed what is termed the fort in Pioneer City. This fort is constructed in the shape of a corrall being heavy logs set upright with rifle pits. Into this they were compelled to retreat many times and the readers of the OREGONIAN—most of them at least—know what it is to fight Indians. The Indians were fought here, and finally subdued, and now we hear no more of them. The grave of Mr Grimes is near this fort, on the creek that bears his name. A claim was staked off for his widow, and no doubt all was done that was possible to render assistance in working it—but I understand it has not turned out very well and now I hear it talked of in various parts of the basin, that if the first legislature of Idaho, which is to meet in Lewiston on the 7th of December, will legalize, by act, a tax to be imposed upon the miners of Boise basin for the relief of Mrs Grimes, they will all cheerfully pay it, and yet she may reap something for the sacrifices she has sustained in the history and discovery of our camp.

Election matters are the principal topic of discussion at present among us but to tell the truth I am too sick of them to scarcely make an allusion to the matter in this letter. All day all night it is here and there the all absorbing bore. As for myself I am at joint issue with both parties, and I can honestly quote a line or two from Churchill to let me out.' He says:

Hail independence, by true reason taught
How few have known and prized thee as they ought!
Some give thee up for riot some like boys
Resign thee in their childish moods for toys,
Ambition some—some avarice misleads
And, in both cases, independence bleeds!

Your correspondent expects to leave Bannock in the course of ten days in company with five others among them well known navigators and men of experience, to ascertain definitely whether it is possible to navigate Snake river or not. The merchants of Bannock take an interest in this matter and the miners also the question of freights has been seriously talked over here, time and again and it as much becomes the people of Portland as it does us, to see if some way cannot be devised to get supplies to this country at cheaper rates. The talk of a wagon road from here to Rogue river, Shasta and Scott's valley by way of Klamath Lake and the navigable waters of the Sacramento is in earnest. It is stated that a little work will put such a route in a most excellent condition, and it is known that parties have passed over it last season, and agree that it is less than 400 miles distant, and I tell you the truth nothing more nothing less than this. That there are very many Californians and others here ready to cut off the Oregon Steam Navigation Company, and Portland with it—if they cannot succeed in any other way in getting things proportionate to their value in the way of freights. The party with which I am connected expect to prospect as well, for gold silver or other precious metals and if the river does not freeze we expect to reach Lewiston in December. Our boat is being built on Buena Vista Bar. The lumber is contributed by the citizens and mills owners as is also our entire outfit, Captain Molthrop will have command of the expedition.

An 'irrepressible conflict' is going on between the miners and property holders in Bannock and Main street is fast filling up with tailings besides Montgomery street has several yawning abysses, where the miner has worked out his 'foot.' Another rich ledge has been discovered near the Ido Elmer (South Boise). It is called the Southern Confederacy, and has rich tracings of gold. A specimen I now hold in my hand about the size of a hen's egg, is nearly one half covered with gold. This lead is not nearer any ledge yet discovered, than 12 miles.

I see by the Dalles Mountaineer that Col Gates has started the machinery for a saw mill up this way. Now in all due deference for the gentleman's judgment, I would say. We have saw mills enough there are no less than four here two steam and two water two at Centreville one just below Hogem two (or three) in Placerville. What we want in the way of such articles as machinery is good quartz mills with stamps sufficient to work up our undisputed wealth of rock. The arastras at work about here do very well but we cannot always put up with them, and the capitalists who come in now will be in time to reap rich rewards for their investment.

Wells, Fargo & Co have purchased [illegible] express, and now run their line this far.

We have dates one day later than we got by the OREGONIAN by the Salt Lake express which has just arrived. This express brings the Rocky Mountain News, of the 24th of September from which I learn the people of Denver are absolutely crazy on the Bannock (Beaver Head) and Stink Water (Snake I suppose) question and that emigrants more impulsive than wise or cautious will, affected with 'Bannock on the brain,' continue to roll out for the distant North.

We have had fourteen teams loaded from Salt Lake in our town since my last. They made the trip in six weeks and two days bringing vegetables, flour, fruit, honey, brooms, concentrated milk and a general assortment of shovels, illustrated and States papers. The condition of their cattle was better than teams coming from below. It is not expected we will get anything more from that quarter before next fall, as the supply is in greater demand at Beaver Head and other parts east of us, besides it is said, Brigham objects to these shipments.

The weather is getting quite cool, and we feel as though winter would soon be about, but not expecting it to be here to give old Jack a nip at my ears. I will take a nip by myself and go to bed for this time and enjoy the warmth of my gray old Washoe and Salem comforters.

Yours truly, INCOG

Letter from Auburn

[FROM OUR REGULAR CORRESPONDENT.]

AUBURN, October 23, 1863

Times have been so remarkably quiet during the past month that no items of interest have been offering for correspondence but of late more than common excitement prevails from various causes. Last week was made memorable by fires. The first commenced one evening in a livery stable, consuming a saloon adjoining on one side, and two small buildings on the other. Very fortunately, the rest of the town escaped though only by the earnest endeavors of the citizens. The second morning after that there was another alarm, this time the building occupied as a Court House was discovered to be on fire and it burned down in spite of all efforts made to save it. All the county records were saved without loss. The fire is supposed to have originated from the stove pipe, though many thought that it came from a spark of the former fire, which had occurred quite near. This fire was unfortunate, as the building consumed was one of the best in town, and the upper story was well adapted for a Court room and well finished for that purpose, and Court sits in another week, which makes it more uncomfortable. These fires seriously threatened the whole town, and its safety is mainly owing the fact that the Canal Co's ditch ran just above the town, and water from it was turned loose upon the burning premises.

The latest excitement is the silver leads at the Owyhee. Assays from Portland show that these ledges will rival the Comstock ledge itself, and experiments made here have started speculation forth a month ago. The Owyhee will make a name for itself before long as a silver region, and those ledges will astonish the world as much as anything that has ever been discovered. I give it up that these ledges have so far failed to answer expectations, but these new mines will bear criticism as they have already been well tested, and you Portlanders may as well prepare yourselves to deal in feet considerably. One return showed $3 400 per ton in silver, and that was only medium quality, another more than doubled it. So at least says "Mark A King," your Portland assayer, I am told. This Owyhee country has attracted many of our citizens thither the past week or so, and will considerably deplete our population should the excitement continue.

We have lately had an arrival from Jacksonville by direct (?) route over the mountains here. A pack train of 60 animals came over fully loaded with bacon, and bound for the Boise mines and only some two months on the way here. I don't imagine they will ever desire to try the route again, or recommend it to their friends, as they consider themselves victimized by the parties who represented the route to them as practicable. Of course they have proved it to be practicable and the people of Southern Oregon can follow their trail by traveling some 500 miles over a very rough country. But nevertheless there may be a much more direct route than those followed hither.

Our criminal callender has augmented considerably of late just in time for the grand jury. The principal matter in hand now is a robbery that occurred in the mines near Eagle creek, way down Powder river, towards the mouth. These mines have paid well and are extensive only that water is very scarce. 'Shanghae Gulch'' in particular, paid richly. Two young men named O Neill and Dan Hyde worked in partnership, since the the first of June, accumulating somewhere near $6,000 of the prettiest dust imaginable. Now Dan Hyde is not very smart as the sequel proves, but he was greedy, and disappeared one time, not only with his own, but with his partner's share of the summer's work, and after hanging around the mountains until compelled by hunger to come down into the valley for food, was suspected, arrested, and soon found himself looking through the bars of the county jail. A packer made the original discovery and arrest, no doubt anxious for the reward, $1,000 that had been offered. A certain Mr Quigley relieved the packer of his charge, representing himself to be a county officer, which he is, being county surveyor. However, with the prisoner Mr Quigley received the $6,000 in dust found upon Hyde's person, and with the assistance of a deputy sheriff who happened along, Mr Hyde was brought to Auburn and safely lodged in jail without either writ or warrant. Now Mr Hyde had the ore in abundance, or rather his keepers had, and with a little legal aid it was managed that he had his examination and no witnesses having arrived and none wanted, he was discharged, though he had confessed his act of theft to more than a dozen men. A horse was bought for Dan Hyde, and he started instanter on his travels minus three fourths of the gold dust—some $1,200 of which was divided between the legal man, the deputy sheriff and county surveyor, and the remainder is somewhere. Now, unfortunately for the success of this profitable scheme, some public spirited citizens took the matter up, followed Hyde and arrested him on another writ, and are industriously engaged in sifting the matter to the bottom. Some $1 100 was found on Hyde, who refused it seems to leave with only $200, as his friends intended.

At present the deputy sheriff is under arrest, and Quigley is in durance vile, and the greatest efforts are being made to learn the hiding place of the balance of the 123 ounces. The public considers from present proof that Quigley acted the unfair thing and stole half of it to commence on. This interesting matter has afforded us a deal of excitement and interest, and will add quite a spice to the coming term of the Circuit Court and you shall have the finale of the whole affair in good time.

H L Preston, Esq, is here on a professional tour, just in time to take a hand in these interesting matters.

I believe positively that there is nothing more to tell, and positively there has not been a word of news before for more than a month.

A boy who asked a Boston police officer for shelter in the station said "You see, Captain, first my father died, and then my mother married again and my mother died, and my father married again, and somehow or other I don't seem to have no parents at all, nor no home, nor no nothing."

CAUTION TO MILITARY OVERCOAT WEARING CIVILIANS.—We are informed that while on board the steamer coming down between Wallula and Celilo last Saturday several gentlemen passengers were divested of their overcoats by the military command which was on board en route for Vancouver. The overcoats, it is almost needless to mention were military garments while the wearers were civilians. The law which forbids the purchase from any soldier in the service of the United States of any garment of regulation cut and material punishes the violator with a fine of $500 and imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding one year. The strict enforcement of this law upon the Pacific coast has been waived by commanders of posts generally until, from the increased number of troops and the difficulty experienced in providing uniform clothing, stringent measures have become necessary alike to prevent the soldier from selling and the civilian from purchasing any article prescribed in the regulations. We are informed that Col Maury is determined to enforce the regulation at the Dalles. Persons in possession of such apparel contrary to law will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

DESERTERS SURRENDERED.—A detachment of Co A, 9th Infantry, consisting of 17 men, came down to Vancouver from Walla Walla on Tuesday, under charge of Lieut Woodson. These men were all deserters who surrendered themselves under the President's Proclamation pardoning all who returned before a specified day. There were twenty one who surrendered, the date of their desertions extending back in some instances ten years, but four of them have made their crime more heinous by deserting their flag in time of war. One fact in this connection is so illustrative of a weakness in human nature, as to be worthy of note. Of the twenty one who surrendered only two appeared from the pursuits of civil life, to lift from their hearts a cankering dread of discovery and punishment. The other nineteen were again enlisted in the service, and stepped from the ranks to have the record of their past delinquencies obliterated. Such erratic geniuses are made for soldiers, and as a general thing possess all the prerequisites for efficiency, save and except the continuity of purpose which their obligations impose.

NEW MODE OF SHIPPING APPLES.—The Bulletin says that recently many apples came to San Francisco in barrels, and it states that owing to the high price of packages and the low price of fruit, fruit growers have been obliged to use some cheaper packages than the usual boxes. A lime barrel contains more than double the quantity that a common fruit box will, the cost being the same, while the apples are said to stand transportation better. Some idea of the fruit trade with Nevada Territory may be gathered from the fact, that 1,000 bushels of winter apples have been sold by one firm to a dealer in Virginia City, to be shipped mostly in barrels.

FINANCIAL.—The Union received last night says:

Donohoe, Ralston & Co, bankers, have dissolved, Joseph A Donohoe and Eugene Kelley retiring. D O Mills, of Sacramento, takes their places. He is now on the way to New York, where he will represent the house. Ralston and Fretz remain in this city. The capital of the house remains the same. The recent fall in prominent mining stock and the stringency of the last steamer day was partially caused by their calling in call loans, which other bankers imitated. This, coupled with the drain of $2,000,000 in coin, created a pressure in the money market not felt since the crisis of the big failures of Adams & Co and others. The money market to-day, on explanation as above is much healthier.

PRAISE FROM THE FOE.—The Charleston Courier thus acknowledges the gallantry of our naval officers in our attack upon Fort Sumter: "It cannot be denied that the Yankee captains fought their vessels with great gallantry. In the foremost Monitor the Yankee captain was seen on the turret, which post he did not leave while the fight lasted. At the same time a man was seen at the bow of the boat very coolly engaged in casting the lead. It is believed however, that this brave fellow was hit at last.

North Georgia, Alabama and Tennessee were grain growing countries but by his retreat, Bragg has left all the rich harvests of the country to the victorious army of Rosecrans while below the 34th parallel of latitude, he is in a country where grain can scarcely be raised and which is filled by flying rebels from other States, who have carried their slaves thither to escape the practical workings of the President's emancipation proclamation.

ANECDOTE OF GENERAL LYTTLE.—In a recent speech at the Ohio Convention of War Democrat Colonel Burke related the following anecdote of the brave General Lytle, who was killed in the late battle of Chattanooga.

An officer of high rank from another State during a conversation on Ohio politics, remarked that the Democrats of Ohio ought to elect Vallandigham and that if they did not, they would not be true to the Democratic party. The brave Lyttle instantly sprang to his feet, and with that flash of his eye we all so well remember, replied: "Sir I am an Ohio Democrat—my comrades here are Ohioans—you must retract what you have said, or fight me before twelve o'clock. [Sensation and loud cheering.]

TELEGRAM.—A dispatch has been received at the Telegraph office for F P Casy.

LATE STAGE.—We are informed that the overland stage left Salem at 2 20 P M, yesterday, with three passengers and fifteen sacks of mail matter.

NO NEWS.—We learn by telegram from Salem that our dispatches, due per stage as we go to press, contain no news of special importance. There had been some skirmishing, but with no decisive results.

CITY COUNCIL, met last evening—President [illegible] in the chair. The full board were present. Minutes were corrected by striking out the proposal of Alex Redwood for lighting the city with 'Greek fire.'

The motion to strike Mr Watson's name from the roll was lost. Councilmen Knott and Monastes moved that their objections to Watson retaining his seat and voting as a member of the Council, and that the Council heretofore declared his seat vacant, be placed on record. Carried.

Petition of Marble & Latta for use of streets to remove a building granted—the petitioners to leave the streets in good repair.

A communication from Mr Swan in regard to lighting streets was read and laid on the table.

The committee on streets and public property were instructed to contract with Mr Swan for lighting streets, &c, and were further instructed to submit, at the next meeting of the Council, before entering into the contract, the terms and conditions of said contract.

The report of the City Recorder was read and referred to committee on ways and means.

The City Collector was directed to send in his report for October at the next meeting.

Bills ordered paid: Daily Times $4, R [illegible]eck $30, Portland Gas Co, $8 50, J [illegible]mb, $16 50, Harbaugh & Stutzel, $67 98, [illegible] Gallagher $31, John Tickner, $177 60; [illegible] F Wilcox, $120 58.

Bill of D Wright, Street Commissioner, [illegible]750, was referred to committee on streets and public property.

An ordinance to purchase a lot on which to build an engine house for Columbian No [illegible] was read a third time and passed.

An ordinance to purchase cemetery of Cole [illegible] Barrell was read first time.

Council adjourned.

FIGHT.—At about four o clock, yesterday afternoon, a couple of men had a slight altercation in the Eureka Saloon, one of whom was [illegible] the shoot and the other on the shoulder. The first man drew his ivory handled revolver, [illegible] the other drew back his five digits and administered such a blow as to place his antagonist hors du combat. The shooting man was severely whipped when they were arrested by officer Foreman. They will attend the "matinee" of his Honor the Recorder to day. In this connection we submit that the practice of exhibiting deadly weapons for trivial causes is becoming unpleasantly frequent for a community claiming civilization.

A VALUABLE PAPER WEIGHT.—We were shown, yesterday, by Mr Arrigoni, of the Pioneer Hotel, a very pretty slab of John [illegible]y's river gold, 866 fine, weighing 41 56 oz, valued at $761 17, which is said to be intended as a present to Victor Emmanuel, King of Italy, to be used as a paper weight in his [illegible], of which the purchaser, Count [illegible]stiglione, is Grand Chamberlain. The bar was assayed by Tracy & King, of this city. It is altogether a fitting representative of our snow clad mountain mines to mingle its brightness with the golden sun light of liberty loving Italy.

SHOSHONE MINING COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation of the "Shoshone Gold and Silver Mining Company," were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday. Capital stock $500,000, shares $200 each. The incorporators are R R Thompson, D F Bradford, Lloyd Brooke, and J C Ainsworth. The office of the Company is at Portland, and the object general mining in Baker County.

A BOUNCING BUCKEYE.—We were shown by Capt W S Powell, yesterday, a buckeye measuring 7½ inches in circumference, being one of the first crop of a young tree on Geo [illegible] farm. The nut probably grew bigger than usual on account of the late election in the Buckeye State. Capt P intends planting it in memoriam.

GOLD DUST.—The Hunt brought down 110 passengers last evening seven of whom had 350 pounds of dust. It is believed that the other passengers had at least 350 pounds in their possession. Wells, Fargo & Co brought down 150 pounds, making the total receipts of gold last night equal to $130,000.

MINING DISTRICT LETTER LIST.—We would call attention to the Express letter list published by Wells, Fargo & Company, which appears on our fourth page.

SAILING OF THE STEAMER.—The Pacific is advertised to leave for San Francisco at 11 o'clock, this morning. She goes by way of Victoria.

IDAHO contains an area of 326 000 square miles—enough to make eleven States like New York.

New Store and New Goods.—The NEW FURNITURE WAREROOMS of HURGREN & SHINDLER will be found on First street between Washington and Alder. In the rooms [illegible] will be found many goods of a better quality and design than formerly found in this city—and they hope that by an extensive and well selected stock, by moderate prices together with a long experience in the business they will retain the increasing patronage which they have enjoyed. Their new place of business is one block west of the Pioneer Hotel and near the steamboat landings.

Particular attention is called to our FELT SHOES.

Persons should not allow themselves to have cold feet when it is a settled fact that many of the ills of this damp wet and cold climate arise from cold feet

Families would find it advantageous to procure them for their children and probably save them from a bed of sickness
